Product description

Agata Kielar-Długosz, recognized Polish flutist, graduate of solo studies at the Hochschule für Musik und Theater in Munich and postgraduate studies at the Hochschule für Musik in Weimar and Yale University in New Haven, winner of numerous music awards, presents a recital consisting of works by Polish composers whose work is rooted in various popular trends of the 20th century. These gems were created somewhat off the beaten track of the artistic activity of their creators, commonly associated with other forms and different instruments, which probably influenced the relatively low popularity of these works, of which Agata Kiela-Długosz and accompanying her at the piano Andrzej Jungiewicz decided to remind the music lovers in a very interesting interpretation.
